Council Approves Hostelry Tax Increase

The Carmel City Council last night voted to give first reading to an ordinance increasing the hostelry tax from four per cent to five per cent.

The additional money derived from the hostelry tax will go to upgrading Sunset Center. The Committee on Administration reported that the committees of the Carmel Business Association and the Innkeepers Association expressed no objection to the increase.

Pop Festival

The Council as a whole recommended that City Administrator Hugh Bayless send a telegram to Sacramento objecting to the Pop Festival. They did point out that they were not opposing a local Pop Festival for "our own youngsters," and went on record as encouraging a non-profit organization to sponsor a local, one-day Pop Festival.

The prime reason the Council gave for opposing the Monterey County Pop Festival was because there are not enough police to handle the large number of visitors the Festival will draw. Ashley Stanley, president of the Innkeepers Association, said that after careful study it was found that there would be insufficient number of rooms available because of the beginning summer season.

Councilman Eben Whittlesey suggested further study by the Committee on Public Welfare before recommending any action on the "animals on the beach." He said, "Considering the weight it would add to the load of the Police Department, I'd like to wait." Whittlesey added that the trouble stems from more and more people letting their dogs loose to run on the beach. "It is this carelessness of citizens who do not watch animals that cause regulations."

The Committee on Lands and Improvements recommended that $1500 be put into a fund to provide for lighting materials to go into

NERODA NAMED COMMISSIONER

Mayor Steve Grant last night appointed Edward K. Neroda to the Planning Commission to fill the unexpired term of William Godwin who left the Commission over six months ago.

Neroda, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin in civil engineering, served in the Navy Civil Engineer Corps after which he owned his own engineering and contracting business. He later joined with James Pruitt and Howard Quinan to form Comstock Associates.

Neroda is active with the Boy Scouts, the Carmel Music Society, Monterey Peninsula Symphony, the All Saints' Episcopal Church, and is currently a captain in the Naval Reserves.

Crime and No Punishment

Carmel Police Chief Clyde Klaumann introduced Special Agent Charles Bates as the luncheon speaker for Carmel Rotary Club's Wednesday meeting. Mr. Bates is in charge of the San Francisco Division of the F.B.I. He pointed to lack of supporting law enforcement on the part of the public and public apathy as the most crucial problems facing law enforcement today. Important portions of his talk included the following:

1967 crime cost the public 27 billion dollars and ten thousand people were murdered. Five hundred thousand autos were stolen (88% recovered) mostly by juveniles. 42% of the cars stolen had the key in the ignition or unlocked doors.

Crime is increasing at about 3 times the rate of our population increase. For example, in 1943 there were 30 bank robberies, in 1966 there were 1,771 and in 1967 there were 2,551. In 1967 there was a 32% increase in the criminal cases handled by the F.B.I. But no increase in convictions.

An aspect of crime not generally considered by the public is that there is no recourse for crime victims: the people who are crippled for life, the dependents of the murdered, the girls who are sexually attacked and end up in insane asylums from the shock.

Decisions by the courts on criminal cases are now greatly influenced by evidence concerning technicalities of the arresting action. Mr. Bates concluded his talk with a quotation by Edmund Burke, "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing."

After Mr. Bates' talk, Chief Klaumann advised the Pine Cone that he had just lost a case on a narcotics felony arrest when Judge Brazil rendered the decision this last Monday that Captain Ellis and his men had executed a warrant in an improper manner.

An informant for the Carmel police had made a buy of narcotics from the defendant on the strength of which a warrant was obtained from the District Attorney's office. When the defendant opened the door of his home (a night chain was on the door), the officers identified themselves and the warrant and broke through the door so evidence could not be destroyed before they were allowed inside.

In court the defense attorney attacked the reliability of the informant then the legality of the warrant, in both instances unsuccessfully. Then he referred to a previous week's decision by the California Supreme Court to the effect that the officers must give a reasonable time before forcing entry and must be refused admittance. On this basis, Judge Brazil complied with that decision. Who is to blame for this lack of conviction?

High School Newspaper Discusses 'The Pill'

The Carmel High School newspaper, The Sandpiper, gave some parents the "shock treatment" by headlining a story "Teenage Girls and the Pill."

The article, written by cheerleader Connie Hood, included quotes from two Peninsula doctors, explanations on how contraceptive pills effect the menstrual cycle, and instructions for administering them.

One doctor, who remained anonymous except for the fictitious name "Dr. Jones", states that "after evaluating the situation" he may give girls a prescription without parental consent, while the other physician, Dr. William Forestelle, The Sandpiper said, wouldn't prescribe the pill for birth control purposes because he is Catholic.

The story, handled in good taste, caused stirring controversy among students, parents, and school officials. As a result, The Sandpiper advisor, Wally La Valley, is now required to submit to a Board of Publications any article he deems controversial. The Board (BOP) has been in existence since last Fall with the primary purpose of "providing broad guidelines," La Valley said.

Mr. Arthur Gumbrell, principal of Carmel High School, said that the board is made up of five students and five faculty members. He pointed out that there was no implication of censorship involved, even after requesting the controversial articles be brought before the BOP before publication.

On the other hand, La Valley and his student journalists feel that the "Board of Publications was not set up as a board of censors, but now it is."

Gumbrell says if a board of five students and five faculty members meet to confer on an article, "Where's the censorship?" "If anything," he mentioned, "the BOP leans in favor of the students."

While Gumbrell considers The Sandpiper a "public enterprise instead of a private enterprise... the citizens of Carmel are the stockholders," La Valley feels it is exclusively the students' newspaper.

Student Body President Wade Rose said, "When I had a discussion with Mr. Gumbrell, he indicated that if the BOP couldn't handle this situation, it would go to the Board of Education, and he knows pretty much the way they would vote," implying that the Sandpiper could be suspended. Rose told the Pine Cone he is taking the censorship problem before the Council this Wednesday.

The Sandpiper has a reputation of being a National Scholastic Association Award winner and its staff including President, Adrian Arima, a cheerleader, and songleader. Each student must maintain a "B" average in English. "To prove a point," La Valley said, "we're not some little left wingers set off in a corner of the school!"

La Valley and his students feel that there was considerable pressure on Mr. Gumbrell from parents. Mr. Gumbrell said that there was "no undue pressure from parents... no threats whatsoever."

Middle School Honor Roll

Thirty three per cent of students at Middle School made the honor roll last quarter and Laura Harris, a sixth grader and Greg Buck, an eighth grader, made a straight "A" average. In the seventh grade, 38 per cent received honors.

Mr. George R. Walker, Carmel attorney, appeared before Mrs. Dee Dresser's 7th grade English class recently in conjunction with a courtroom drama which the class read, discussed, and for which they wrote individual verdicts, with explanations. Jeff Walker had volunteered his father to answer certain questions concerning legality, courtroom procedure, etc.

The Science Department was visited again recently by the Northern California Committee on Problem Solving in Science. The California Science Teachers' Association has requested an article about CMS Science teaching for its publication and Mr. Albert Kolb, Science Department, and Mrs. Dresser have been preparing one.

EDITORIAL:

Should A Doctor Prescribe The "Pill" To Underaged Girls With No Parental Consent

The article on "Teenage Girls and the Pill" which appeared in the Carmel High School newspaper The Sandpiper, caused concern in certain circles from the standpoint of "should this subject be tackled by high school students."

Students nowadays have a drive to explore every subject and should not be deterred. But, whether this topic should be held back is mainly up to the school's Board of Publications. (See story on this page). The students are learning journalism, and are doing a great job. I wish my high school newspaper had been so well put together.

But what is more concerning than the subject matter is the fact that there is a doctor on the Peninsula who "after evaluating the situation" may give a prescription to underaged girls WITHOUT PARENTAL CONSENT. This is reported in the Sandpiper article, and is quite disturbing.

According to the County Medical Society Executive Secretary Ed Colvin, "In the case of a minor child (under 21) a physician needs the consent of his/her parents or guardian to be treated." He names two exceptions to this law: (1) If a minor is emancipated, he or she needs no consent from a parent or guardian; (2) a physician may treat or examine a girl for pregnancy without consent."

Colvin told the Pine Cone that "prescribing of medication is a treatment," therefore, a doctor cannot prescribe medication without written, verbal or implied consent from the parents or guardians.

When Dr. F. C. Burleson of Carmel was questioned whether any underaged girls had come to his office in search of a birth control prescription, he commented, "Yes! But they don't get one. They'll keep trying all different doctors until they find one, though." Dr. Burleson went on to say that his office WILL NOT start treatment on a minor until the parents are contacted.

Best of Show

Stray Dogs Attack

A winter visitor to Carmel from Boston called the PINE CONE to say that she twice has been badly frightened by stray dogs in the past few weeks.

The first attack occurred on Mission between 11th and 12th, week before last. A large shepherd dog roaming with another, jumped twice on her shoulder and bit her arm twice. Fortunately she was wearing a heavy coat. A young man stopped his car to take her home.

She reported the attack to the police who wanted to know the license number of the dog. Needless to say, she could not supply this information.

The second attack occurred last week as she was about to take the "17 Minute Walk" one sunny day. On San Carlos, across from Sunset, three large dogs surrounded her and frightened her by barking menacingly. A woman riding a bicycle saw her plight and stopped. During conversation the woman said that her child had been bitten recently on the beach at 13th street.

She is now afraid to leave her home for the walks about town she enjoys so much.

For the protection of Carmel visitors, residents, and for the protection from passing motorists of the dogs themselves, should not our leash laws be extended to the residential areas?

Child Needs Love To Learn To Read

Love of children was singled out as the most important attribute of a teacher of reading by Dr. Jo Stanchfield, in her spirited, enthusiasm-instilling talk at the International Reading Association conference at Middle School last Saturday morning.

She cited research accepted by AMA that feelings of self worth and satisfying interpersonal relationships were the most important factors in learning to read.

The administration or principal is most important in setting up the emotional climate of the school, whether the school emphasis is going to be on athletics, science or literature.

She stressed the need for teachers to love children, give practice, to check, give practice, to clinch learnings, trying all kinds of ways. Motivation and readiness, she felt was vital, and making drill and practice exciting, of transfer to generalization, association. The teacher, she said, must make them succeed so that they can go on to the next level.

She quoted Bruner on the importance of breaking up learning into small units in sequential order.

After this come methods and material, she said. Children learn at different times and in different ways. It is important that a skillful program of sequence and development be set up using multi-media reinforcement. She mentioned the use of games for drill, typewriters, cartoons and pictures, tapes for own stories, and the importance of checking to see that something is really learned by all in the class, not just the bright ones.

The need for research into a structured reading readiness program using the listening skills, articulation, sounds of the alphabet, and instruction aids was pointed out. Reading should be fun for the child, she stressed.

She described the challenge of working in the Watts area with youngsters completely uninterested, in connection with her Reading Clinic at Occidental College. They are offering tangible rewards like tickets to the Dodgers games, or "be-bop" records to get them started.

She believes in giving tests over when failed. It is more important that the child learn the material than be punished by a poor mark.

We must compete with TV at all levels, she emphasized. Even among culturally disadvantaged, 99 per cent of them have TV, compared with 14 per cent with access to magazines or four per cent to books.

She described the use of cross graded pupil teams to read to one another, to talk to one another, the use of conferencing and counseling.

Teacher Demonstrations
Demonstrations of different book series in use in various grade levels were held in many classrooms where children were present.

The Human Values Series published by Steck Vaughn Company for fourth, fifth and sixth grades were demonstrated in one of the classrooms in which a teacher discussed with the children such values as respect, responsibility, wealth, friendship, enlightenment and power. The stories illustrated real-life situations including divorce.

In another, a beautifully illustrated book of poems and stories for eighth graders

TOGGERY and TAXES

What to do with an old Police Station when you get a sparkling new one? Why, turn it into income property, of course.

First, sell it for what the market will bear (the proceeds to the city's general fund); second, tax it annually through real estate assessment—otherwise known as property taxes (proceeds to the county, which supports the local schools, sanitation, library, airport, etc.

Third, tax it every day it is open for business by levying taxes on every sale made (proceeds to the state, county and city, which again supports schools, etc., and, lastly, tax it once a year on the value of inventory and fixtures to support the county and state—some of the proceeds return to the city in various services.

Now, add to this the cost of cleaning off the old police station—the contractor paying taxes too, don't forget, as well as salaries which are also taxed; the expense of an architect, taxed, and the cost of constructing a new building—everyone taxed again; the expense of purchasing a wide variety of inventory—taxes, taxes on the manufacturers; and finally, salaries for employees, taxed, local business licenses (taxes) and the advertising to attract customers—(The PINE CONE gets taxed, too).

Welcome, then, Carmel-by-the-Sea, Monterey County, the State of California and the Internal Revenue Bureau, Barbara and Howard Jackson, who by their purchase of the land, the clearing of the eyesore, the construction of a proposed lovely new building and the opening of a new business, THE TOGGERY, to serve the tastes of our ladies with lovely apparel, have and will enrich the coffers of our city, county, state and federal government through revenues provided by these entrepreneurs.

It is only incidental at this moment that Barbara Jackson also knows her business. Acclaimed one of the best-dressed women of Southern California, she has owned THE TOGGERY in Yorba Linda (near Santa Ana) for four years and travels frequently to Austria, Switzerland, Italy, France and Ireland to supplement her domestic lines and to provide her clientele with distinctive and tasteful clothes, selected in limited quantities and sold in a manner to guarantee individualistic appearance.

CHS Play 'Enter Laughing'

By Mark Thompson
"Let's not waste time on ifs, buts and maybes. 'Enter Laughing' is marvelously funny." Thus did the Times critic begin his review of this terribly hilarious farce by Joseph Stein.

The comedy, which appeals to all ages, will be produced and presented by the Carmel High School Drama Department March 22 and 23 at the Sunset Auditorium in Carmel.

The farce is an account of the riotous sojourn of a stagestruck youth who works as the delivery boy in a sewing machine factory. His parents want him to be a druggist; but as soon as he has saved enough money he enlists in a hammy, semi-professional company that will put anybody in any play for the right amount.

However, he is, as the Daily News critic reported, "a terrible, dreadful actor; and the scene of his first performance is joyously funny. It takes a good actor to act like a bad actor." He proceeds to splash through romantic scenes with the ham manager's daughter, with another fellow's date, and finally with the office girl that was meant for him all the time.

"Pure golden comedy . . . totally funny . . . When it isn't hilarious, it is tenderly amusing or abundantly human. It is a dear and welcome play."—N.Y. World-Telegram & Sun.

You can't miss this great comedy. You'll exit laughing.

the season with guest pianist Leonard Pennario.

This dynamic performer made his professional debut with the Dallas Symphony when he was 12 years old, won the Young Artists' competition at 15 and performed with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra. He appeared with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra under Artur Rodzinski at Carnegie Hall in 1943.

Since that time he has been guest artist with virtually every major American and European orchestra including the eight leading orchestras of Great Britain, the Vienna Symphony Orchestra, Boston Symphony Orchestra and The Hague Philharmonic.

At home and abroad, Pennario has achieved a list of triumphs unmatched by most of his contemporaries and equalled by only a few of the elder statesmen of the concert world. The London Times said, "He is an extraordinarily refined artist with fingers as agile and a mind as subtle as those of the very greatest pianists memory can recall."

This brilliant American artist has combined the virtues of a keen mentality and keyboard mastery. His constantly expanding repertoire include 36 concertos, and he will play Rachmaninoff's "Piano Concerto No. 2 in C Minor" on March 19 in Carmel's Sunset Auditorium.

Tickets for this outstanding program can be reserved by calling the Monterey County Symphony Box Office at 624-4125.

Theatre Review

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER, Spencer Tracy in his final work and last teaming with Katherine Hepburn. Poitier's performance capped a remarkable year for him.

BONNIE AND CLYDE, dazzling slapstick style treatment of saga about robbing group in the Southwest of the 30's, leaves one entertained but not much wiser about them. Gore and sensuality intrude. But the cast is fine.

THOROUGHLY MODERN MILLIE, Carol Channing steals the show playing an eccentric wealthy widow, but also around to help in this comedy of the 1920's are Julie Andrews, who is delightful, James Fox, Bea Lillie and John Garvin. Some of the songs are from the period.

THE GRADUATE, interesting, if not completely compelling, comedy. Dustin Hoffman is excellent in the title role. Anne Bancroft is extremely good as the woman who seduces him and Katharine Ross is attractive as her daughter with whom Hoffman falls in love. The picture argues that all over 30 are dishonest, corrupt and unthinking.

P. J. Peppard is "P. J." a down and out private detective who sells his professional services to a greedy, evil millionaire, portrayed by Raymond Burr. For both, the

Artists In Action At Highlands Inn

Kay Hillyard of Viscaio and Flanders Way, food editor of California Home magazine, is coordinating an artists in action program for a conference of food editors from all over the Southwest which is being given by General Foods at the Highlands Inn on March 14.

Local artists in action participating in the program will be Avis Ballard who works in enamels; Rudolph Marzi, Carmel Valley, who creates pottery and works in Monterey jade; Anne Blinks of Pebble Beach who raises her own black sheep for the wool she uses for weaving; Nancy Johnson, water color artist; Robert Grabowski of Fisherman's Wharf, who designs his own jewelry, and Karen Mignano of Carmel, who creates flowers.

Our own Phyllis Jervey, PINE CONE Party Plans editor, will, of course, be there.

Garden Party

Two French naval vessels, stationed in San Francisco harbor recently, sent their officers and midshipmen by chartered bus to see Carmel. After a picnic lunch at Point Lobos and a tour of the shops, a garden party for them was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henri Corbat of Carmel. The outing was sponsored by the local L'Alliance Francaise.

Featured Dancer

Marcia (Mrs. Frederick) Rider who, with her family, has been living in Santa Cruz since last summer, performed as solo dancer with Amparo y Cuadro Espanol at Cabrillo College recently. She uses the name Ana Gabriela in her work with this group.

Carmelites In Tonga

Stephen Gray who grew up in Carmel, was recently presented to King Taufa'auah of the Kingdom of Tonga. A Peace Corps volunteer, Steve is now serving in Tonga, following his graduation from the University of the Pacific School of Pharmacy.

His father, Dr. K. Fillmore Gray, was for many years minister of the Church of the Wayfarer and his brother Stanton is a senior at Stanford University.

Steve's assignment is teaching in Tupon College, where he is writing a syllabus and teaching chemistry, physics and biology. Extracurricular activities include gardening and experimentation with new trees and plants, together with skin diving excursions for marine biology. He does some of his teaching in English but must depend upon his Tongan, learned in training sessions in Molokai, for speaking engagements in the churches and community groups.

John W. Twibell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Twibell, of Carmel, and his wife Marie, have also arrived in Tonga, in the Friendly Islands of the Southwest Pacific, where they will be teaching school for the Peace Corps.

Their only complaint, according to his parents, was the lack of spices, such as pepper and garlic salt. Copra and bananas are the principal exports of the island.

The natives have built them a house, and John and Marie plan to plant a garden as they did in Hawaii, and raise some chickens. Their diet will include lots of fish.

John and his wife, who were married last June, hope to visit New Zealand at the end of their two-year stint.

Flown Here

The mother of Mrs. De Forest (Fran) Sweeney, Mrs. Frank D. Lisle, arrived last week from Providence, Rhode Island, where Fran grew up.

A bridge party is being given for her by Miss Florence Beard of Carmel. There will be other gatherings to see color slides of the Peace Corps Nepalese wedding of Frank Wallace, Mrs. Lisle's grandson, from which Fran recently returned.

Carmel resident Girard Aken has shown his paintings in various galleries of Carmel but now he has his own: The Girard Studio Gallery. It is located on Ocean Ave., upstairs, between San Carlos and Mission. Freshly decorated and carpeted in colors to harmonize with the paintings of the sea and ships which are his specialty. It is well worth climbing the steps for the gallery goer. Sylvan Aken manages the gallery for her husband.

Girard's work with brush and palette knife captures the magnificence of the Pacific rocks and surge in still another individual way. One marvels that with the number of fine sea scape artists we are blessed with in our area, each one portrays the color and action in a different manner.

Mr. Aken has an impressive background of study and schooling in painting. He has shown in the De Young Museum, Oakland Art Museum and many other important shows and galleries in California.

Reviews for Young Readers

By Allene Premier

We have two little books which should help to assuage the insatiable taste which small youngsters have for jokes and limericks. William Cole has collected these and Tomi Ungerer is the illustrator. LIMERICK GIGGLES, JOKE GIGGLES and RHYME GIGGLES, NON-SENSE GIGGLES are the two titles.

Adults and some children have heard most of them before, but they're still fun. There might even be a few unfamiliar to you.

Also for the youngest set a tale of robbers (who are, of course, caught) is told by Marlene Reidel. JACOB AND THE ROBBERS tells of how the robbers are caught by Jacob, the moon-walker. It is fantasy, yet realistic. The subtle colors and the woodcut-style designs are charming. The story is simple and pleasant. This one won't cause nightmares.

CHARLIE THE TRAMP, by Russel Hoban, has been in the library for a few months, but he is a special friend of mine. Charlie and his family are beavers, so it is natural to them to work hard. However, when questioned about his ambition in life, Charlie answers that he wants to become a tramp. "Tramps don't have to practice swimming and diving and holding their breath under water. Nobody looks to see if their teeth are sharp.

Tramps carry sticks with little bundles tied to them... Tramps just tramp around and have a good time."

Charlie is allowed to be a part-time tramp. He comes home for meals. He finds out that he can't help being a beaver after all. He builds a fine pond, which his mother, father and grandfather admire and decides it's pretty nice being a beaver. The illustrations are by Lillian Hoban.

WALLACE, THE WANDERING PIG, by Judy Van der Veer, should delight those readers who are beyond the picture book level and enjoy stories about fun-loving animals. Wallace is a polka-dot pig, who has many adventures as a wanderer, before being returned to his rightful owner. He is thoroughly likeable and somewhat of a mischief-maker.

For the older young readers we have some good non-fiction to offer. DISASTER, 1906, by Edward F. Dolan Jr., tells the story of the San Francisco earthquake and fire. There are some excellent photographs, as well as a detailed account, almost street-by-street, of the catastrophe.

Let me briefly mention three new biographies which we have. BENITO JUAREZ: BUILDER OF A NATION, by Emma Gelders Sterne; JOHN JAY, by Doris Faber, and AARON COPLAND, HIS LIFE AND TIMES, by Arnold Dobrin. We have lots more books to offer, so come on in and take a look.

Camera Club

The Padre Trails Camera Club will meet on Thursday evening, March 7th, in Brey Hall at the Carmel High School, at eight o'clock. The program for the evening will include the monthly P.S.A. pictorial slide contest, and pictures of Jamaica, by Miss Laura Durgin.

The winners in the color slide contest at the last meeting were Irene Davis, Dr. Willis Bayse, Art Thorson, and those accorded honorable mention were, Kay Chase, David Ball, George Culp, and Galyn Hammond.

BASS BARITONE AT TOWN HOUSE

Robert Armstead, bass baritone is slated to sing at the next Wednesday afternoon program at Carmel Foundation Town House, March 13 at 3 p.m. He will sing songs by Purcell, Handel, Schubert, Scarlatti, and Tchaikowsky.

Dr. Armstead is assistant professor of Physics at the Naval Post Graduate School. He and his family have lived here since 1964. He studied at the Eastman School of Music while he attended the University of Rochester.

Poetry Column

Many of the late Bert Heron's poems were published in the British Review, the Smart Set, Harpers Weekly and the Forum. One of Heron's poems appeared in the very first issue of the PINE CONE. Here is a reprint from a 1938 issue of the PINE CONE.

SCIENCE

by Herbert Heron

from Continents End, an anthology of contemporary California poets.

Cold in her upward journey through the snows
Of unknown glaciers, and the mists of God
Hang around her always and the heights she trod,
In times that only age-worn history shows,
Have crumbled, as the palaces of those
That built on sand; but still her alpen-rod
Rings on the ice; she owns no period,
Nor grants her followers repose.

Deep are the hidden mysteries of things;
Far rise the clouded peaks of mystery!
Vain seems the search, and sweet the water-springs
And easeful warmth of rest. Not these they see,
Who follow Science where she climbs and sings—
Seeking for truth, who know that truth must be.

Carmel Travelers

Europe By Freighter And Karmann Ghia

We asked Mrs. Everett Bibb to tell us about the trip around the world she and her husband, Lt. Col. Bibb, returned from recently. She was most enthusiastic about the five-week freighter trip they took to Europe via Panama. With only five passengers aboard, they felt as though they were on their private yacht.

In Holland they picked up a spanking new Karmann Ghia which they had previously ordered, and after inspecting some of the Scandinavian countries and Germany where they had been stationed, they started down the Dalmatian coast through the high and very rugged Montenegri mountains. In this section of Yugoslavia, the roads were horrible, but the scenery spectacular.

After reaching Athens, Greece, by way of Albania and Thessalonica, they took a cruise of the Greek islands in the Mediterranean, stopping at Crete and Rhodes, before reaching Istanbul, Turkey. Here they picked up their car and drove to Patras in Greece where the car ferry transported them to Brindisi, in the heel of Italy.

After cutting over to Salerno, they drove up the west coast of Italy, bypassing Rome, through the Italian Riviera, Monaco and the French Riviera along the coast of the Mediterranean to Valencia, Spain.

Here she began to rave about the wonderful accommodations Spain has for motorists. The government has turned many of the old castles and historical buildings into "Paradores" or places to stay. They are completely modernized, but in beautiful taste. The restaurants serve excellent food and the rooms with bath are reasonably priced.

They stayed in what had been a convent, built in the 13th Century.

Madrid, she said, was lovely in September. Before leaving Spain, on the north coast at San Sebastian, they saw a bull fight.

From there they drove leisurely through France, avoiding the big cities which they had previously seen, to Brussels and Antwerp where they took a Dutch freighter to England. They wandered about through southern England, Wales and Scotland and then shipped their car home.

Off to India by plane by way of Gibraltar, Algiers and Tunisia, they stopped in Afghanistan to see daughter, Nancy, who was working in the Peace Corps.

In Bombay on the Arabian Sea, they boarded a French liner which took them to the island of Ceylon, and from there to Bangkok in Thailand, down to Singapore at the tip of the Malay Peninsula.

Then on to Manila, Hong Kong and Tokyo—all places they had once lived during Army days. From there they flew to Honolulu where they celebrated Christmas. Altogether they were gone for six months. Their Karmann Ghia, by the way, arrived in San Francisco about the time they did, or 60 days after it was shipped. M.H.

REPORTS FROM RLS

By Chandler Meloy

Leadership Conference Success

With 12 student body Presidents and 14 VP's attending, the second annual Independent School Leadership Conference was deemed a success by Director Bruce Decker and State-wide President Claude Wynn.

Over 125 delegates from 21 private schools in California attended the three-day meeting that included seminars on public relations, student-teacher relationships, faculty-administrative problems, press and communications, plus several others.

Not only is Decker to be congratulated on his organizational skills but the tone and mood of the convention showed great leadership by R.L.S. students, including special thanks to: Bill McCreery on Food and Registration, Mark Pomeroy for Housing, Tom Gardner as Assistant Director, Rick Johnson (10th) as Discussion Chairman and Gary Bechtel as Assistant. Others with special tasks deserving thanks included Phil Fleming, Tim Filchlin, John Sharon, John Reilly and Claude Wynn.

A state-wide newspaper called FOCUS—S.A.I.S. was produced for the meeting and copies are available on request for parents, friends of the school, or journalism students. Plans were made for an art show of independent schools, exchange days (officers from one school with another) and other state-wide programs such as a speech tournament.

Mike Donahoe was cited as a winner in the 32nd annual Current Affairs Test conducted by Time Magazine this past month. Some 2,500,000 students participated in both Canada and the United States from Colleges and High Schools. World Affairs Instructor, Dr. Denton Rebok, conducted the 100 question test. Bruce Decker and Keith Wilson earned runner-up certificates of Merit, while Donahoe was awarded a Certificate of Excellence. Sports "Really Big Show"

For Spring

Five major sports will start this week, with many minor team events starting in the next month. Baseball, track, swimming, golf and tennis teams will all start their schedules either Friday or Saturday, and all events are open to the public. The opening schedule calls for the R.L.S. golf team to play at Stanford at 1:30 p.m. this Friday, followed by baseball at R.L.S. with Monte Vista, at 4:00 p.m. and the Track team going to Gonzales to face York at 4:00 p.m.

Saturday will see Bellarmine open the tennis season at R.L.S. at 2:00 p.m. with Menlo taking on our swim team at the same time in the Stevenson Olympic Pool.

Speech Team Active Too

Joel Harris defeated Jack Booth and Gerald Bearden in the local Carmel Lions Club this past week. He will now face the winner of the Carmel Valley Contest at the Erdman Memorial Chapel on Monday, March 11th at 8:00 p.m.

Baha'is Observe New Year March 21

Members of the Baha'i Community of Carmel and the Monterey Peninsula will join millions of Baha'is around the world in observing the Baha'i New Year on March 21. The Baha'i New Year's Day falls on the first day of spring each year.

March 21 is also designated International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination. It was first so proclaimed by the United Nations General Assembly in 1966.

The Baha'is of Carmel and the Monterey Peninsula would like to extend an invitation to all interested groups and individuals to join them in planning and executing a proper commemoration on this important day.

For further information on an organizational meeting, please contact: Laura Smithson, 624-3252 or Norbert Kammer, 624-1122.

FAKE FIRE

Last Thursday evening many Carmel residents rushed out to watch the Carmel Volunteer Fire Department extinguish a blaze on Mission between 7th and 8th. It appeared to be a "real" fire, and it was confusing to the onlookers to watch the firemen add fuel to the blaze.

But, this building was merely being used by the firemen during a training period in fire fighting.

Smoke swirled high above Carmel and as persons arrived on the scene they were told not to panic, it was only a demonstration.

Mrs. De Weese has been chosen as the contralto soloist for the "Messiah" performance to be presented for the third year at the Naval Postgraduate School on Palm Sunday.

Kenneth Ahrens, this year's

Bach Festival organist, and one of the outstanding local organists, will assist in the program and will play Buxtehude's "Passacaglia" on the recently installed Walcker pipe organ built especially for the Community Church by one of Germany's oldest organ makers.

Do you know what Christian Scientists really believe?

Relatively few people do.

They are often surprised at the logical and understandable theology of this Christian religion. In fact, many people have become Christian Scientists when they have discovered how clearly it relates the teachings of the Bible to living in today's world.

Why not come into our Reading Room and learn this for yourself?

No need to speak to anyone... just come in and choose a chair and sit down to read. It could be the most inspiring and helpful time you've ever spent.

'The Christian's Best Friend'

A person's beliefs about God "have a marked effect on happiness and health," a Christian Science lecturer said here last Thursday.

Mankind's ills can be traced primarily to cramped beliefs and "harsh concepts of God," he said. And Christian healing comes by "yielding the mind to a true sense of His love."

Geith A. Plimmer, C.S., of London was the speaker. He is currently on an international tour as a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

Speaking here at the invitation of First Church of Christ Scientist, he told an audience in Sunset Center Auditorium that real "health and happiness derive their vitality direct from divine sources."

This source, declared Mr. Plimmer, is the one indicated by Jesus when he said "there is none good but one, that is, God" (Matt 19:17).

A man "can learn to keep himself morally sound and physically well solely by knowing God aright," the lecturer said. "Every Christian knows from the Bible that Christ's Christianity can undoubtedly heal him of sin and sickness."

Such healing requires deep, spiritual communion with God, he emphasized.

This kind of communion, he said, was taught by Jesus in his command to "worship the Father in spirit and in truth" (John 4:23). This command underlies the whole Christian Science concept of worship, the lecturer indicated, and he quoted this passage written by Mary Baker Eddy, the discoverer of Christian Science:

"Whatever materializes worship hinders man's spiritual growth and keeps him from demonstrating his power over error" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 4).

In this spiritual communion, Mr. Plimmer said, "the cold letter of the human yields to the warm spirit of the divine."

It requires great humility, he said—but has little to do with pleading or despair.

This communion is "a listening time, not an informing time; a stimulus to challenge, not a sop to self-deception," he declared. "It is a time of joy in the truth of being, of gratitude to God for the perfection and pure spirituality of His creation," and it's also a time to "honor God as Life, Spirit, and Love, to whom matter, sin, disease and death are eternally unknown."

Mr. Plimmer asserted that healing is the result of such communion, because of its "fixed Principle of perfect God and perfect man"—which enables the individual to "challenge the beliefs in sin and sickness" and to "humbly stand in the dignity of man made in God's likeness."

He said that "healings of this purely spiritual kind" make it "clear that the human mind alone feels sick," and "the divine Mind alone heals."

By such healings, he added, "Christ's infallible method receives its proper credit for healing in the twentieth century, just as effectively as it did in the first."

Nothing can take the place of the Christ, the lecturer said. And he emphasized that all effective spiritual healing involves "discovery of the Mind of Christ, of the divine law upon which Jesus worked."

Therefore, this healing process always involves "love instead of recrimination, divine Truth in place of human guilt, Christliness rather than criticism."

It rouses the individual "to understand the divine Love that casts out the belief that there can ever be anything to fear anywhere in the universe of perfect Mind," the lecturer declared.

The effect on the individual, he said, "is that instead of discussing disease as a fearful possibility, he begins to discard it fearlessly as a mere mental suggestion;" and "rather than bind himself on account of the lies of sin, he begins now to bind sin instead on account of its lies."

In this way, one finds "spontaneous freedom to express all one's joy and power," Mr. Plimmer said, and learns to "openly and unselfishly aid the collective salvation of the whole world."

DEL MONTE KENNEL CLUB BLUE RIBBON SHOW: The Great Del Monte Club Blue Ribbon Dog Show will be held Sunday, May 26, 1968. This year it will be held on the Pebble each Polo Grounds near Del Monte Lodge which will give increased space to both exhibitors and parking facilities. The other noted change for this year's show is there will be no limitation to the number of entries; however, all entries must be prior blue ribbon winners, except those registered in the puppy and obedience classes.

PWP Group Elects Officers

Several Carmel residents were among the officers elected last week by Parents Without Partners to serve during the ensuing year.

Gordon Cubbison, a Monterey mutual funds representative who lives on Carmel Point, was chosen president.

Other Carmelites voted in to office include: Sue Berum and Dorothy Kingsbury, vice presidents; Jan Weber, corresponding secretary; Nancy Dehnert, treasurer, and Glynn Lockwood of Carmel Valley, directors-at-large.

Shrine Election

Golden Rule Shrine No. 43 will hold their annual election of officers at eight o'clock, Friday evening, March 8 in the Pacific Grove Masonic Temple. A pot-luck supper will precede the meeting at 6:30. All Sojourners are cordially invited to attend.

Martin Rochelle

The Monterey Peninsula PWP group was established a year ago as a chapter of the international educational organization which is devoted to the welfare and interests of single parents, whether widowed, divorced or separated.

PWP activities include monthly topical meetings, featuring discussions by professional people on problem solving, personality development and goal setting. Children are included in such events as beach barbecues, bowling, camp-outs and bike rides.

Adult members gather frequently in small groups for home suppers, social hours and discussion group coffees. Further information may be obtained by calling Barbara Johnson at 624-1448.

Youth Activities Center Donated

Barber Shop Harmony at Sunset

The PLUS FOUR quartet is one of the features of BARBERSHOP HARMONY at SUNSET, March 8 & 9, Sunset Auditorium, Carmel. In 1961, these gentlemen discovered they had four white handkerchiefs that matched and decided then and there to form a quartet. Believe it or not, quartets have been formed with less. This foursome started slowly in the early years, and since then have sort of tapered off...

These four are difficult to describe because of their many underwhelming features... Well, here goes (left to right) GENE SMITH, tenor is the oldest and has the skinniest legs, he's from Salinas... BUCK WILLIAMS, lead, broke his nose when he was four. He used to live in Carmel but is now a resident of San Jose... NEIL KEEFER, baritone, wears glasses, lives in Carmel. The Bass, LEE STUTZMAN, usually needs a haircut. He lives in Monterey. The big redeeming feature of all, however, is that their repertoire contains some of the dingiest songs known to mankind.

Another feature Friday and Saturday night at Sunset will be the CARPETBAGGERS who won the Northern California Barbershop Quartet Contest. The contest was held January 27 at the girls gymnasium at Monterey High School. Thirteen novice quartets from as far away as Roseville entered the contest sponsored by (S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A.)

An attractive outdoor Youth Activities Center was dedicated at the conclusion of the Sunday, March 2nd services at the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula. The gift of Mr. & Mrs. Alfred Elkinton, it represented a true community endeavor. The design and planning were the contribution of the Carmel architect, Walter Burde, and contractor, Floyd Carter; plumber, Orville Jones; electrician, Willis Shepard; metalsmith, Donald Berry; brickmason, George Beck; plasterer, William Ingram and paving contractors, Lawrence & Ronald Leidig also contributed to the project.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Walter Burde, the surrounding area was landscaped with the help of Art Hickey, Akira Oshida and Mrs. Walter Hammond, members of the Ikthys and College groups, under the direction of John Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. John Farr. Helping to serve the coffee, punch and cake which had been made by Mrs. John Powers, were the members of the youth groups.

Another project scheduled for this Saturday by the College group is the carwash, to be held at the church grounds on Saturday, March 9th, from 9:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Theatre Review

roles represent a drastic change of pace.

GAMES, suspense thriller in Technicolor. Simone Signoret literally stops traffic with her opening scenes.

IN COLD BLOOD, gripping, authentic follow-up to Truman Capote's literate study of two killers who commit a senseless, multiple murder. Richard Brooks' direction draws the performance from new comers, Robert Blake and Scott Wilson, and evocative detail from settings.

JUNGLE BOOK, the full length cartoon version of Rudyard Kipling's stories about a boy raised in the jungle by the animals. Excellent animation and characterization, complimented by top notch cast of voices in this Walt Disney production.

ANNIVERSARY, tasteless exercise in the sordid and macabre, features Betty Davis as mother who stifles the lives of her grown-up children.

FIRE CREEK, good, old Jimmie Stewart and Henry Fonda starred in this western which pits them against each other. Stewart is a farmer and sort-of an honorary sheriff and Fonda is a gun fighter. It's set in the '70s and co-stars Barbara Luna and Jack Elam, the villain with the bad eye who has been in every western ever made.

ROUGH NIGHT IN JERICHO, starring Dean Martin, in an abrupt change of pace for him, portrays an ex-law man turned town boss who stops at nothing, even murder, to enforce his despotism. In enforcing his one man rule, he is thwarted by Jean Simmons who, as the owner of the stage coach line, has the only enterprise left for Martin to acquire to complete his economic stranglehold.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Edith Marie Benson, 43, died unexpectedly on Friday morning. Known by fond students as the "Jungle Lady", she was recreation director of the old Sunset School, and for the past six years at River School. Active in both Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, she organized at least 20 groups of Cubs on the Peninsula, and headed many charity drives.

She was one of the first to graduate from the new Carmel High School.

Her husband, Raymond D. Benson, survives her, as do her two daughters, Suzanne Marie and Judith, and son, Jon, all of Carmel. Another son Charles is in Vietnam with the Navy. She is survived also by her mother, Mrs. Edith Fonteneau of Carmel, and two sisters, Mrs. Annie Laurie Hedges of Sacramento and Mrs. Bety Asher of Germany.

Services will be held at the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea on Friday morning at 11.

Gertrude Morehouse, 70, former Carmel resident, died recently in Walnut Creek. She had been a past president of Carmel PTA, a Girl Scout leader, Red Cross volunteer for many years, and member of the Episcopal Church.

Her husband, the late Ernest Morehouse, had been a Carmel realtor. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Alice Nies of Columbia and two grandchildren, as well as two sisters. Contributions may be made in her memory to Central Mission Trails Heart Fund, Box 191, Monterey.

OBITUARIES

Donald Bushnell McGilvra, Pebble Beach, died last week. Born in 1895, and native of St. Paul, Minnesota, he had been president of a mining company in Buenos Aires.

He is survived by his widow, Helen Harvey McGilvra, a son, Donald Harvey, both of Pebble Beach, a daughter, Mrs. Mary Clare Dinno, and seven grandchildren. Mission Mortuary was in charge.

place, fully equipped electric kitchen and bath. Good closet and storage space, sliding glass door looking out on a patio. Price: $14,000.
2. A 2-bedroom, 2-bath home with fireplace in a spacious living room. Separate storage space and ample closets.
Electric equipped kitchen, sliding glass doors to a pri-

The Owner Said:

"These Things I Have Valued and Enjoyed"

A HOUSE . . .
Brick and stucco structure which means minimum upkeep for repairs. Well fitted windows and doors. Complete fencing which gives me a great sense of security. Well built, which means easily heated (gas and electricity in the coldest months ranges $12-$15 month).

THE SMALL GARDEN PLOT
With very interesting potentials for a green thumb, easy on water. And my wonderful double-trunk redwood tree!
While the lot is small, there's no sense of being "boxed in."

INSIDE MY FRONT DOOR
is a wide hallway giving a great sense of spaciousness to my 2-bedroom, 2-bath house. I love the large dining room opening onto a patio; it's so pleasant for working or taking meals. I like the oak floors, grass paper on the living room walls, the paneling, the wainscoting in the dining room—very easy cleaning with these finishes. I appreciate the good grade, well-functioning kitchen with its built-in equipment. Extraordinary amount of storage and closet space.

IT'S A LIGHT, AIRY HOUSE
The windows are set in such a way as to give plenty of sun in the living room and dining rooms well past mid-day.

I LIKE ITS LOCATION
It's so well situated for walks on the beach and a suitable distance from mid-town and traffic (especially with the way Carmel has been growing and getting busier). It's a quiet neighborhood, and I have such good neighbors. In short,

IT'S A HOME ONE FEELS "AT HOME" IN.

Thank you, Miss G. P. We can only add that the price is just $39,500.

REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE

"SURE, EXCHANGING IS EASY"

INSTALLMENT SALES—

Can concern you. If you are selling real (investment) property, to reduce the amount of tax paid at any one time, you may accept payments over a period of time and pay the tax on your gain as you receive payment.

It is important that you understand the rules which apply to installment sales. Accepting over 30% of the sales price in the year of the sale requires you to pay ALL of the tax charged to that sale.

Just a few dollars can make a big difference. Be especially careful early in your tax year, for when you accept 30% down on a sale, you cannot receive any principal payments during the remainder of the year without becoming liable for the entire tax amount.

But why pay the tax? EXCHANGING can be entirely "tax free." Use the amount normally paid in taxes to help pyramid your investment and estate. We help you make it grow.

When you need investment help, whether selling, buying or exchanging, call us, we can serve you better. Know you are receiving maximum benefits from your investment dollar.

Devendorf Park. He was granted the money.

KRML Radio was granted permission to tape a "Meet the Candidates" show from the City Hall Chambers scheduled for later broadcast.

Public Hearing

Mrs. Askew threatened the Council with a suit against PG&E if they "don't do something soon," about the design of the substation. She told the Council that "You have had plenty of time . . . If I have to wait any longer, I'm going to bring suit." Councilman Whittlesey said, "If you want to call things to a grinding halt, then bring suit."

Councilman Sefton reassured her that plenty has been done about it and that plans have already been submitted to PG&E. He said, "It takes time to work out problems when working with a large corporation."

CHS Students For P.G.&E. Scholarship

P.G.&E. offered their wishes to the candidates to do well in the next stage of the competition.

Travel Cutback Danger

A rather discouraging picture of world events was sketched John Owen Lloyd, British Consul General in San Francisco, in his talk to a World Affairs Council gathering of 85 at Brey Hall recently.

He expressed worry that world trade would be restricted by the cuts the U. S. feels forced to make because of its war commitments.

The dominance of the U.S. was cited as the reason Britain is reluctant to enter NAFTA (North American Free Trade Association) as suggested by Senator Jacob Javitz, or PENAFTA (Pacific Europe, etc.), as an alternate to entering the Common Market. He cited the $6 billion dollar investment U. S. industry has invested in England. He was reminded by a member of the audience the U. K. has that much investment in the U. S., for example oil.

Lloyd described the new Habercraft service across the English Channel which takes only 25 minutes to carry 300 passengers from Dover to Calais. He wondered about the possibilities of such a service between Carmel and San Francisco or down to Long Beach. He also expressed satisfaction about the jet engines being built in St. Louis combining Rolls Royce, Lockheed and Douglas engines.

He mentioned the great financial loss to Britain resulting from the cutting off of oil supplies because of the war between Israel and Egypt and the consequent closing of the Suez Canal. The U.K. will be quitting its bases in Southeast Asia and the Persian Gulf in a few years, thus placing more responsibilities on the shoulders of the U. S.

Seedling Trees

The Monterey Peninsula Garden Club will sponsor an exchange cutting day on Saturday, March 9 from 9:30 to 2 p.m. at the Pacific Grove Senior Center, 17th and Jewell.

Mrs. Pauline Morris, Garden Club Chairman, and members of the club will supervise the event, assisted by the Sophomore Social Science Class of the Pacific Grove High School who are creating the posters.

The Monterey Peninsula Garden Club will award a $5.00 prize for the best poster. Five hundred seedling trees have been purchased by the club to be given away that day. Bring a container and share the joy of exchanging plants and ideas with other gardeners. Refreshments will be available.

For Motel Ordinance

We must prevent any further expansion of motels in the residential district of Carmel. For 30 years, motels in our R-1 district have increased and expanded. We must end this and protect our homes from the further commercialization of our residential district—before it is too late.

Under existing law, most of the motels in the residential district are illegal. However, because these motels have been allowed to exist and expand all these years, effective control by the City is impossible without a new law that recognizes their existence. Ordinance No. 156 C.S. is such a new law.

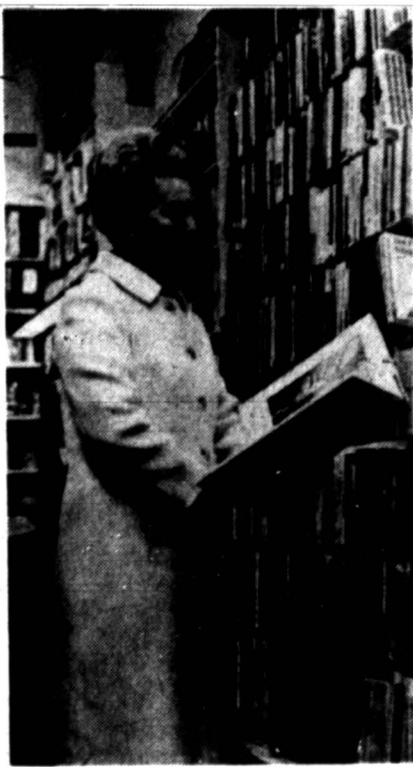

This is a law that will permit the City to take effective action to prevent further expansion of motels while permitting existing motels to continue under proper controls. It will not permit the establishment of any new motels. This law will give your City government the means for stopping further commercial encroachment into our residential area.

Without this new law, our residential areas will become increasingly commercialized as more motels creep in and existing motels continue to expand.

Vote "YES" on Measure Number 1 and protect your homes and your residential property values.

Symphonie d'Elegance

Mrs. Monte Harrington, one of the models who will appear at the Symphonie d'Elegance fashion show on Tuesday afternoon, looks over a book donated by Wells Book Store to be given away as door prize.

Del Mesa Carmel will be the setting for the Sixth Annual Symphonie d'Elegance fashion show, presented by the Monterey County Symphony Guild, Peninsula chapter. Tea and sherry will be served from 3 to 5 o'clock on Tuesday, March 12.

Outstanding door prizes have been chosen which include a week's vacation on the island of Hawaii. The fashion show—chairman is Mrs. James Parks, assisted by Mrs. James Moore, ticket chairman (624-1183), and Mrs. Jack L. Stein Jr., models chairman.

Against Motel Ordinance

To preserve the character of Carmel, vote "NO" against this motel proposition. This ordinance (contradictory within itself) serves no useful purpose to the City of Carmel, a city which is "primarily, essentially and predominantly a residential city." The ordinance would benefit only those property owners granted an arbitrarily-issued use permit for a motel in the residential area. Under this ordinance, the owners, or future owners, of non-conforming or illegal guest cottages in the residential district (with 4 or more units) could, at any time, build new, commercially modern motel buildings which would, in every way, be commercially competitive with those in the business district. They would be able to reconstruct up to 50 percent of their value every 12 months without being subject to the requirements for reconstruction, including the provision for off-street parking.

With the above-mentioned benefits to these motel owners, the danger is absolute that one or more of the large, corporately-owned motel chains could become interested in the purchase of what are presently highly restricted and controlled guest cottages under existing law.

These benefits to the motel owners in the residential district would be at the direct expense of all other property owners in the R-1 area. Such direct expenses could be added police services, street maintenance, etc.

Under present laws, the non-conforming guest cottages can be maintained and can remain indefinitely. The present laws prevent their expansion better than the proposed ordinance. The City has more than adequate health and safety regulations that can, indeed, be enforced both now and in the future, without any new ordinance.

This ordinance could lead to tragic commercialization of the residential district of Carmel.

Vote "NO" against this ordinance!

For Sunset Ordinance

Four years ago the people of Carmel voted overwhelmingly to buy Sunset School for a Municipal Community and Cultural Center. Since then the Sunset Committee, the Sunset Commission, the Carmel Cultural Commission, the Carmel Planning Commission and the City Council have devoted countless hours to developing at Sunset Center those uses which the people of Carmel have asked for.

Sunset Center is now zoned R-1 Residential, Single Family Dwelling. This is obviously not appropriate zoning for what Sunset Center is now, and will be. Ordinance Number 158 C.S. provides appropriate zoning for the continuance of the uses now existing at Sunset, as well as providing for its future development.

Such desirable activities as concerts, stage performances, lectures, ballets and symphony are not residential in character and are not appropriate at Sunset, if Sunset is to remain zoned Residential R-1 as it is now and tickets are sold or charges are made to the public. Without any monetary return for the use of facilities at Sunset, the taxpayers of Carmel would bear the full burden of Sunset's cost of over $90,000 per year—equal to 45 cents on the city tax rate. Carmel and its citizens cannot afford the unnecessary tax burden of keeping Sunset zoned as residential property.

We must continue our world-famous Bach Festival, the Symphony, the Carmel Music Society and the other desirable cultural and community uses of Sunset. We must also look ahead to an even richer future for our Sunset Center, not a commercial future, but an enrichment of our cultural heritage.

Vote "YES" on Measure Number 2.

Peace Corps Test On March 16

Carmel area residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps Placement Test at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 16 at Rm. 6, U.S. Post Office, 565 Hartnell, Monterey.

The Peace Corps uses the Placement Test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement. The test requires no preparation and is non-competitive; an applicant can neither pass nor fail.

Persons interested in serving with the Peace Corps must fill out an Application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before the test. Application forms are available from post offices or from the Peace Corps in Washington, D.C. 20525.

Against Sunset Ordinance

You should vote "no" against the Sunset Ordinance because it opens the door to commercial use of this property. We can, and must, reverse Official thinking in regard to Sunset.

Reversing the Official thinking means returning to the real meaning of the words in the bond issue which the voters approved four years ago. This bond issue authorized purchase of Sunset by the City for use as a "municipal community and cultural center." Our City can continue the long-established artistic and cultural uses without incurring any urgent necessity for re-zoning. City offices, playgrounds, athletic activities in the gymnasium, club socials, youth activities, and any other City-sponsored community uses need no re-zoning.

This re-zoning Ordinance has one really objectionable purpose—that of opening Sunset to commercial uses. This can put the City in direct competition with our many landlords, and Art Galleries and businesses that are engaged in earning a living, in the legitimate business district, without any subsidy from the City.

The Sunset re-zoning Ordinance does indeed open the door to paving Carmel's only playfield for paid parking, for a multiple-level garage, and for the possible leasing out of the whole as a going commercial venture to outside interests, any time a simple majority of the Council may so vote.

We can finance Sunset without commercial zoning. Full City and community use will completely justify the original purchase and the future upkeep. Don't be misled by the statements that the cost is greater than the City can bear, or that the re-zoning is "simply to make legal what we are already doing there." These are general statements, and they don't stand up under any real questioning.

We strongly urge you to vote "no" against the so-called Sunset "limited-commercial" Ordinance.

MARKET COMMENTARY

Dow Theory Business and Stock Market Forecasts letter of March 1st mentions, "The bear market continued this week but it is at least a possibility that prices will improve over the next few weeks. Continue to maintain your reserves, however, and be very selective in new buying as there are no indications whatsoever that the bear market has run its course." " . . . high flyers are often the first to turn around in a bear market. Therefore, since most of these issues are already selling substantially below their 1967-68 highs, we believe that risk accounts with reserves in excess of 50% may make selective purchases in these issues on a long term, dollar cost averaging basis."
